

RIVALS IN RACE TOMORROW NIGHT

W. E. Samuelson and Floyd McFarland Will Again Contest on Saucer.

IN AUSTRALIAN PURSUIT.

Provo Boy Expects to Win Within Four Miles—In That Event Californian Declares He Will Quit.

The chief event in this week's bicycle races is scheduled for tomorrow evening at the saucer track, and it promises to be one of the best races ever witnessed at the local track. W. E. Samuelson, of Provo, known as the human motor, and Floyd McFarland, of San Jose, Cal., will be pitted against each other in an unlimited Australian pursuit race. These riders are old time rivals. That the race will be a long and hard one there is no doubt. The riders will race for a purse of $100.

In addition to the match race there will be a two-mile open lap professional and a mile handicap professional. Kramer, Clarke, Lawson, Downing and the other fast ones will fight it out in these events. The amateurs will contest in a half-mile open event and a mile handicap.

KRAMER NOW IN LEAD.

Champion Frank Kramer has finally succeeded in taking the lead away from Clarke, the Australian, in the standing of the riders in point of winning races. The three meets last week gave Kramer the chance he wanted. Clarke, however, had the misfortune to fall in two races which put him out of the running. One thing that pleases the fans is the fact that Iver Lawson is rapidly running into good form again, and is gradually coming to the front. Among the amateurs DeLara leads by a big margin and there is little chance of any of his competitors catching him.

The following tables show the standing of the professionals and amateurs up to date:

PROFESSIONAL.

POCATELLO BEATEN.

Salt Lake Team Defeats Visitors by Score of Twenty-three to Nothing.

John Dubel's Salt Lake team gave the Pocatello aggregation a lesson in baseball in their game at Walkers field by running up a score of 23 to 0. The local team played almost perfect ball, the only error being a hard foul tip which was dropped by Margetts. The detailed score follows:

ELY LOSES TO SALT LAKE.

Stephens, One Armed Pitcher, Proves To Be the Whole Show.

Dubel's team shut out the Ely nine in an interesting ball game at Walkers field on Saturday afternoon. The game was worthy a better attendance, as those who saw the contest made up in enthusiasm what was lacking in numbers. The feature of the game was the remarkable work of Stephens, the one-armed pitcher recently discovered by Dubel. He showed remarkable ability in pitching and batting. Out of four times up he secured three hits and his pitching kept the visitors puzzled most of the time. The Salt Lake team played an errorless game and was at no time in danger of losing.
